

Welcome to the Information and Disclosures site for Strategic Wealth Advisors Group, LLC., the hybrid Registered Investment Advisor of The Financial Services Network (The Network). This site contains documents that assist clients in understanding our firm services as well as how we conduct business.

In most cases, you already engage an Investment Advisor Representative who is affiliated with our firm. If you have questions about our services or the disclosure information, please feel free to reach out directly to your Advisor, as they can best explain how they will help with your investment and financial planning needs.

About Strategic Wealth Advisors Group, LLC.

When you look at your Financial Advisor and their local office, you don't see the myriads of people and organizations that they have partnered with to provide you the personalized financial advice you receive. Behind the scenes, your Advisor has aligned with a branch office, investment companies, technology firms, insurance agencies, research teams, and a wealth of other professionals in order to ensure that they have the support needed to help you plan for your financial future.

One of the professionals with whom your Advisor partners is The Financial Services Network, and more specifically, your Advisor leverages the supplementary capabilities of The Network's Registered Investment Advisor (RIA), Strategic Wealth Advisors Group, LLC.

A Registered Investment Advisor is a professional advisory firm that offers personalized financial advice to clients. Often working with complex portfolios and unique needs, advisors who deliver services in conjunction with an RIA are able to provide highly customized levels of investment management strategy and consultation. Strategic Wealth Advisors Group is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, is subject to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and has a fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its clients.

The staff and consultants of The Financial Services Network may be Registered Representatives with, and securities are offered through LPL Financial, Member FINRA/SIPC. Fee-based investment advisory services may be offered through Strategic Wealth Advisors Group (SWAG), a Registered Investment Advisor or LPL Financial, a Registered Investment Advisor. Both SWAG and The Financial Services Network are separate entities from LPL Financial.

Disclosure Documents

We encourage you to read our ADV Part 3, Part 2 of our Form ADV, and our Privacy Policy by clicking here. These documents will help you better understand the services that are available to you. Please note the questions you should ask your Investment Advisor Representative.

If You Need Assistance

If you are looking for assistance in finding an Investment Advisory Representative, don't hesitate to reach out to us. Inquiries will be responded to within two business days. Thank you for your consideration!